Record Keeping Checklist.

Maintaining appropriate and proper clinical records relies on speech pathologists integrating fundamental record keeping practices into their daily routines. Using this checklist will help to evaluate your practice. 'No' answers are opportunities for improvement.

I keep a separate record for each client.	Yes	No
I obtain and record informed consent for all services provide.	Yes	No
My entries are legible, accurate, and made in chronological order and clearly dated. Any corrections I make to records do not remove the original information.	Yes	No
I have signed my notes, and initialled any corrections or additions.	Yes	No
I record sufficient information to allow me or someone else to return to the records at any time and be able to understand what took place and why.	Yes	No
My entries are made at the time of the session, or as soon thereafter as practicable within 48 hours.	Yes	No
If I don't have an opportunity to write my notes until the following day, I always enter the date I'm making the additional entry in the client's record.	Yes	No
If documents are scanned to the record, such as external reports, the scanning is done to a sufficient quality that retains the legibility of the original document.	Yes	No
I have consistent processes for recording the details of any further interactions with clients that may occur via telephone, text message or other method.	Yes	No
I only use abbreviations that are widely recognised and accepted in speech pathology or I provide a list of abbreviations in the client's file.	Yes	No
I don't make subjective or emotive comments; all information is professional. I know that clients have a right to access their records.	Yes	No
All client care and entries in the record are made with the SPA's Code of Ethics in mind.	Yes	No
I keep an appropriate, consistent standard of clinical records for all clients, not just those with complex needs.	Yes	No
While I may ask a suitably qualified assistant to record some health information in the client's record, I always review their entries. I know that I cannot delegate responsibility for the accuracy of health information recorded to another person.	Yes	No
The date of any funding claim matches the date of therapy in the clinical record.	Yes	No
The claim item number matches the therapy type and length detailed in the clinical record.	Yes	No

The provider number recorded for a claim matches the provider number for the speech pathologist that provided the service according to the clinical record.	Yes	No
My records are stored securely and in a way that ensures they can be promptly retrieved.	Yes	No
My records are collected, maintained, transferred and disposed of in accordance with privacy laws and state or territory laws.	Yes	No
I have developed a privacy policy that provides information to clients about the collection, access, disclosure and retention of their health records.	Yes	No
We have regular training for everyone at our practice about the appropriate collection, storage, access and disposal of records.	Yes	No

1800 810 213 guildinsurance.com.au

Guild Insurance Limited ABN 55 004 538 863, AFS Licence No. 233 791. This article contains information of a general nature only, and is not intended to constitute the provision of legal advice. Guild Insurance supports your Association through the payment of referral fees for certain products or services you take out with them. SPE411581 Speech Path Record Keeping Checklist 10/2024